FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE Out now - "Dino Dino: Playful Paleontology· released on Steam 16th May 2024 Berlin, 16th May 2024 - ·Dino Dino: Playful Paleontology· is now live on Steam. Developed by btf Games, the acclaimed smartphone game will now also take PC players - adults and kids alike - on a fun journey full of dinosaurs and discoveries. Discovering dinosaurs through the minigames and in doing so learning about these phenomenal creatures in a playful way was always the main focus of our team. Working together with the non-profit organization Paläontologische Gesellschaft (Paleontological Society) gave us the opportunity to be as scientifically accurate as possible without losing the fun. Releasing on Steam we want to give more players the opportunity to be explorers. The Steam release of ·Dino Dino: Playful Paleontology· will add some new dinosaurs and new minigames to the beloved original game to round off the experience and give players even more to explore. Updated key features of "Dino Dino" include: - Three new dinosaurs: Plateosaurus, Psittacosaurus and Ubirajara - Updated minigames: New dinosaurs added to existing games, quality of life features - New detail view: Take a closer look at the dinosaurs to see how and why every dinosaur evolved special techniques and tools to survive - Play on PC with a new user interface to have the best possible experience with Dino Dino: Playful Paleontology "Dino Dino" has launched on Steam today on the 16th May 2024.
