Submissions for "Games Made in Europe" now open! Dear devs, First and foremost, we are thrilled to let you know that we·ll be opening our Indie Arena Booth submissions for gamescom 2023 this month, so keep an eye out for that! In the meantime, we are able to share another exciting opportunity with you. We have partnered with Games Made in Europe which is a non-profit organisation dedicated to supporting the European games industry landscape by providing business connections, training and networking. Their 4 day streaming event (25 - 28 May) includes workshops and a Steam festival! You now have the opportunity to sign up for their two-part program here: Sign up The two parts of the program are the following: " The European Games Showdown " is dedicated to promoting European creations and generating sales and wishlists for participating studios. It will combine a Steam sale event and a Twitch livestream with leading European influencers to achieve this goal. All offers include 5 days of Steam highlights Participation in the live stream " The Business Experience " is aimed at providing business knowledge and opportunities to European video game companies. It will combine training for studios in the form of 2-hour masterclasses - open to every employee -, a digital event in partnership with MeetToMatch, and networking opportunities with other first class actors in the European ecosystem during the first semester of 2023. All offers include Access to 5 to 10 masterclasses - 2h talk - for you and your employees Participation in an exclusive B2B online event Invitation to 4 networking events in Europe More information on their website or via their deck . We can't wait for your submissions soon! Xoxo,
