We are happy to open our internal Indie Arena Booth matchmaking once again. If you are Press, Streamer, Publisher/Investor you will be able to network with our devs before the event, get insights and make appointments with them.

Once you are accepted as press or publisher, you are also invited to our Indie Arena Booth Reception sponsored by Epic on Wednesday August 23rd from 6-8pm at our booth. After being accepted, you will receive a separate eventbrite link to register.

You can choose if you are visible in the matchmaking tool and if you want to be contacted after sign-up in the dashboard. You will be able to browse our teams with more specific infos than you can find in the general press kit.
