Consumer electronics brand JSAUX announces a new batch of ROG Ally compatible accessories that are now available for players worldwide. The upgraded carrying case , the shoulder bag as well as the anti-glare screen protector are now available on JSAUX·s website. Customers should also be aware that JSAUX·s docking stations are compatible with Steam Deck and ROG Ally·s devices . Here·s a short description of each product: Upgraded Carrying Case (BG0106A) This redesigned case not only perfectly fits your handheld console but also has plenty of storage to pack your power unit, a docking station as well as other accessories (cables, a pair of bluetooth headphones) so you can carry all you need for your perfect gaming session on the go. It·s available for $26.99 / ·24,70 . Shoulder bag (BG0105A) The most suitable option for those looking for a bigger carrying case. The shoulder bag has two compartments with plenty of space that will allow players to store not one but two handheld devices as well as other accessories (power banks, docking stations, USB headphones, cables, power adaptors). It·s available for $45.99 / ·42,09 . Anti-glare screen protector (GP0113) One of the very first things every player does when buying a handheld console is getting protection. The anti-glare screen protector, which comes in a 2-pack, includes an ultra-thin, anti-fingerprint screen protector that will keep scratches away from your device. The protector has been designed to avoid as much glare as possible and it also comes with a set of tools to easily install it. It·s available for $14.99 / ·13,72 . Future ROG Ally Accessories Today·s news is just the beginning. JSAUX plans to continue supporting the ROG Ally by releasing more products designed for handheld consoles. Players can expect to soon be able to purchase the following items: White RGB Docking Station Screen Protectors (HD/Anti-Blue Light) Protective Cases Buttons Stickers Silicone Grips Charging Port Dust Plug Joystick Caps
