FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE PAX Reveals West 2024 Dates, Welcomes Matthew Mercer for Unplugged 2023 Keynote SEATTLE - Sept. 5, 2023 - Show organizers ReedPop and Penny Arcade revealed today that PAX West 2024 will return to the Seattle Convention Center for Labor Day Weekend from Aug. 30 to Sept. 2, 2024. Additionally, PAX Unplugged , the most attended tabletop gaming convention on the East Coast, welcomes voice actor and Critical Role Game Master, Matthew Mercer, as the Storytime keynote speaker at the Pennsylvania Convention Center on Friday, Dec. 1. PAX Unplugged 2023, taking place Friday, Dec. 1, to Sunday, Dec. 3, 2023, will feature fan-favorite anime and video game voice actor Matthew Mercer as the keynote speaker for a fun and personal Storytime. Mercer·s many credits include the Game Master for the web series Critical Role, the voice of Ganondorf in The Legend of Zelda: Tears of the Kingdom , Trafalgar Law in One Piece Film: Red , Jotaro Kujo in Jojo·s Bizarre Adventures: Stardust Crusaders among countless others. As PAX West 2023 draws to a close, the West Coast·s most-attended gaming event will return on next year·s Labor Day weekend. Friends, families, and gamers from all over the world will have a chance to visit the Seattle Convention Center from Friday, Aug. 30, to Monday, Sept. 2, 2024, to check out the most-anticipated games, watch intense tournaments, and attend delightful panels featuring their favorite content creators and game developers. "PAX Unplugged is what I want around the end of the year, as more and more of my gaming time is spent around a table," said Jerry Holkins, co-founder of PAX, Penny Arcade, and Child's Play. "Plus, this is the show where you can get the purple versions of the shirts and coats and stuff." Media and content creators can register for PAX Unplugged here . Potential attendees can purchase three-day badges for $85, and pick up single-day badges for $40 each. Families can pick up Sunday Kids Day badges for their children aged 7-12 for $13 each.
