4 September 2023 - The developer and publisher of Beyond Sunset together with 12 developers of boomer shooters signed an open letter to the fans of the retro shooter genre! The letter answers a question ·how can you help retro shooters·, and was signed by titles such as Dusk, Ion Fury, Hedon Bloodrite, and more. The message is simple: if you·re a fan of retro shooters, how can you help us grow? And the answer to that question is just as simple! Here are a few FREE and easy ways to support indie games: Wishlist the game on Steam & other platforms, if applicable; Play demos; Review the games - give it a score! Follow the social media of the creators & interact with the posts (we love to talk to you!); Join Discord servers of your favorite games; Share the game with your friends (the more the merrier); Share it with your favorite content creators; If you are a content creator - play it! And the very cliché one: buy the game from a legal source! The letter was signed by the developers and publishers of: Beyond Sunset Cultic Diluvian Ultra Dread Templar Dusk Forgive me Father Forgive me Father 2 GRAVEN Hedon Bloodrite Hyperviolent Ion Fury Ultrakill Viscerafest WRATH: Aeon of Ruin "We want to thank Beyond Sunset and all the devs who signed under this initiative. Movie Games took Beyond Sunset under our wings because we love small indie projects made with true passion. We want to support indie devs and as we've seen fans ask how to help boost their favorite games, we wanted to let them know about the free and easy ways to do so," says Michal Puczynski, Movie Games Head of Content.
